The 41st Annual New York Renaissance Faire

A re-creation of a 16th century village filled with performers, crafts, games, and food that gives the illusion of stepping back in time. The Faire features more than 125 performances on 20 stages, and over 100 craftspeople, all set within 65 acres of beautiful forest.

Enjoy Jousting which is a form of competition between two knights on horseback, in which they gallop toward each other carrying long poles called lances. They use the lances to try to knock each other off their horses. Often the unhorsed knight will continue the fight with his (or her!) sword.

This is an outdoor event. Please dress for the day's weather and wear comfortable walking shoes. Many come in costume ranging from simple to elaborate. Add extra fun to your day and heighten your whole experience when you come dressed to play. If you'd like, the Belrose Costume Rental shop rents costumes by the day. You can shop among the craft vendors, have your fortune told by a psychic, enjoy human-powered rides or try your hand at clever games of skill. These may have an extra charge. Wagon Rentals are also available at the Belrose for just $20/day.

Enjoy a wide variety of food ranging from simple to exotic. Roasted Turkey Legs might be considered the "don't leave without trying one" Renaissance food. The menu also includes vegetarian, vegan, dairy-free and gluten-free options. Enjoy a variety of Pepsi products, iced tea, lemonade and bottled water. Our specialty drinks including mead which is the oldest form of alcoholic beverage known to man. It is simply fermented honey made in a similar brewing process as beer. (no outside food or beverages is permitted)
