MainStage at theREP - THREE MOTHERS By Ajene D. Washington

Step back in time...with this eye-opening educational program

June 21, 1964 - Three college students, James Chaney, Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman, were tortured by the Ku Klux Klan in Neshoba County, Mississippi.

Their crime: registering Black Americans to vote and being born Black or Jewish.

Taking inspiration from the 1964 photo of their bereft mothers leaving the final funeral together, "Three Mothers" is the imagined moment afterward, in Carolyn Goodman's home on the Upper West Side of Manhattan, when the three women forged an unbreakable bond and commitment to the Civil Rights Movement.

Don't miss this stirring play, the winner of 2022 NEXT ACT!

New Play Summit, in its world premiere production only at theREP!

Smith's Public House, Cohoes - built in 1873

Flash back through the years to the Prohibition era. A time capsule that has remained unchanged since the mid-1930s. Michael T. Smith, 'Big Mike' purchased Smiths in 1937. This was considered the unofficial Democratic headquarters in Cohoes.

The bar is 50' long and made of priceless African mahogany.
